

Look good with your own style in SIX steps with the help of a professional art director

Message from CEDARS – Counselling and Person Enrichment

Image Building 1001 (Female & Male)

Have you ever wonder...

- What types of clothes and accessories fit your body shape and style?
- How will your dress style influence people's impression on you?
- What style should be avoided in different occasions?
- How to use colours in a smart and fashionable way?

Our trainer, art director Ms Pamela Lay has over 20 years of styling experiences working with renowned companies such as Leo Burnett, Ogilvy & Mather, Club Monaco, Joyce, Fendi Asia Pacific, Antepima etc. In separate workshops tailored for female and male students, she will teach participants how to design their own style and create a positive outlook.

Date: 7 November Friday (female group)

14 November Friday (male group)

Time: 5 – 8 pm

Venue: Room 411, Meng Wah Complex

Language: Cantonese

Class size: minimum 10/ maximum 20

Fee: $50

Deposit: $100 (refundable)

*participants need to wear an outfit that they think may leave a positive impression on others to the workshop

*please register in person at Room 408, Meng Wah Complex

Please contact our office (Tel: 2857-8388, email: cedars-cope@hku.hk) for any enquiries.

Counselling and Person Enrichment Section (CoPE)

Centre of Development and Resources for Students (CEDARS)