

11th University Scholars Leadership Symposium (1 - 7 August 2020)

Dear Students,

The Government of Malaysia and Humanitarian Affairs Asia are looking for outstanding student leaders to attend the 11th University Scholars Leadership Symposium in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia from 1 to 7 August 2020.

The Symposium is a leadership development training programme for young leaders between the ages of 18 and 28 from all over the world to foster a new perspective and unite a global understanding on social change. The symposium features keynote speakers, networking sessions and interactive workshops to prepare and empower young leaders to be an agent of change.

HKU will nominate up to 20 students to attend the Symposium.

Benefits for Students:

- Adding to your social impact experiences
- Enhancing your global citizenship education
- Networking with like-minded individuals who are passionate about social change
- Contributing to FIVE United Nations Sustainable Development Goals

Qualities of Student Leaders

Participants, aged between 18 and 28, are expected to be:

- passionate about social change, global issues and current affairs
- able to demonstrate the ability to lead and show initiative

Cost

Please click here for registration fee and other costs incurred in the Symposium.

Application and Selection

Please click here to complete the application form and send to mwyjenny@hku.hk by 18 February 2020 (Tuesday). Selection interviews may be conducted. Successful applicants will receive letters of acceptance from the organiser, and more information regarding registration and payment.

Enquiries

For more information about the Symposium, please visit <https://humanitarianaffairs.org/>.
Related enquiries can be made to cheung.rachel@humanitarianaffairs.org.

For enquiries about HKU's nomination, please contact Ms Jenny Mok at mwyjenny@hku.hk.

Regards,
Carla Cheung
Publications and Publicity Officer
Centre of Development and Resources for Students