Dear Students,

The Boao Forum of Asia (BFA) will organise its Annual Conference 2017 from 23 to 26 March, around the theme of Globalization & Free Trade: The Asian Perspectives. According to BFA, there will be some 50 sessions running over the 4-day event in forum, roundtable, entrepreneur dialogue and themed dinner formats. The Conference will be attended by heads of state/government, ministers of economic affairs and international organisation leaders. To learn more about BFA and the Conference, please visit www.boaoforum.org.

HKU will nominate up to 3 student volunteers to the Conference. The Y.Elites Association (Y.Elites), which is a partner of BFA, will further manage the selection and registration of volunteers to the event. Details of the arrangement are set out as follows:

Period of Commitment
20 - 27 March 2017 (both days inclusive)

Eligibility and Requirements
1. Full-time undergraduate students with valid travel documents to enter the Mainland. Priority will be given to local students as this exercise is meant to broaden exposure of Hong Kong youths.
2. English and Mandarin fluency is a must. Proactive and have a strong desire to serve and appreciate the importance of worldview.
3. Be available throughout the period of commitment, from 20 to 27 March 2017.

Work Nature
The volunteers will be deployed to various working teams, including event management, enquiries and logistics support.

Cost
Travel and accommodation expenses will be covered by BFA and Y.Elites respectively. According to Y.Elites, insurance and living expenses during the whole period will also be included for all students, except other incidentals.
