HKU IS COMMITTED TO WWF'S EARTH HOUR

EARTH HOUR 2014 - 29/3 at 8:30pm

Join the HKU Earth Hour Photo/Video Competition!

Earth Hour is the world's largest collective environmental action, involving individuals, communities, schools, businesses and governments across the world. This collective lights-off event sends a powerful message: that everyone wants a sustainable future.

At the Main and Centennial Campuses of HKU, we will shut down all non-emergency lighting in common areas from 8:30 – 9:30 p.m. Twelve Residential Halls and Colleges will also join Earth Hour this year. Find out what your hall is doing, and get involved!

Send us your photos! To showcase HKU's support for Earth Hour, we are having a photo and video competition. Please submit a photo of HKU in darkness during Earth Hour or a video of how you spend the hour and share it on our FB event page: <https://www.facebook.com/earthhour2014hku>! Winners will be awarded a fair trade package and winning entries will be exhibited at Chi Wah Learning Commons in April 2014. Visit our facebook page for more details!
