

Volunteer for Kids Ocean Day

@ Repulse Bay Beach 淺水灣沙灘

8th November (Fri), 2013, 06:00 - 13:00

Kids Ocean Day is happening in Hong Kong again this year! We are calling out to all who are keen to speak up for the environment and be part of an incredible aerial art project on the beach!

Kids Ocean Day, 2013 aims to:

- give talks at 20+ primary schools on ocean health and environmental issues throughout 2013/14
- get children to draw as means to express, relate and explore
- bring 1400+ children on the beach to create one big drawing together
- empower children to be caretakers of the environment

School Outreach Team

(12-15 HKU student ambassadors)

Project Period: October 2013 - June 2014

Responsibilities:

- speak in school assemblies and classes during school hours (Cantonese or English)
- learn about the topic and prepare for your talk
- liaise with schools
- give small classes on the beach

Criteria:

- enthusiastic to raise environmental awareness
- excited to work with young children

Application deadline: 17th September, 2013

Online application

Recruitment and Information session (mandatory):

18:30-20:00, 19th September, 2013, Thursday
KB 111, Knowles Building

Beach Crew

(120+ HKU members)

Project Day: 7th and 8th November, 2013 (Thursday, Friday)

Responsibilities:

- help us for the preparation and on the day!
- lead and organize young children

Duty slots:

7th November (Th), Pre-event set-up, 15:00-18:00

8th November (Fr), Architect, 06:00-13:00

8th November (Fr), Chaperon, 08:30-13:00

Application deadline: 21st October, 2013

Online application

Briefing session (mandatory):

18:30-20:30, 28th October, 2013, Monday

LE2, Library Extension

All Beach Crew will be recognized for volunteering on the day. HKU student ambassadors participating in 3+ school outreach sessions will be recognized and invited to participate in other roles and related programs!