

Subject: Peer Study Skills Coaches

Message from CEDARS - Counselling and Person Enrichment Section (CoPE)

CEDARS - Counselling and Person Enrichment Section (CoPE) invites you to join us to build a supportive learning community through our “Study Smart” programme. A series of small group workshops and one-to-one consultation on generic study skills will be organized in the first semester. We are looking for a number of HKU postgraduate students and graduates as peer study skills coaches for other HKU students in need.

BENEFITS

- You can transfer your knowledge and experience on effective study strategies to junior peers;
- You will feel rewarded in helping other students;
- You may gain experience in supporting students with physical and/or learning disabilities;
- You will receive an hourly rate ranging from HK$110 to HK$300 as remuneration, according to your qualifications and relevant experience *
 For current recipients of HKU fellowships/studentships, endorsement from your supervisor is required.*

CRITERIA

- Possess a recognized undergraduate degree;
- Excellent English oral, reading, and writing abilities;
- Experience serving as an academic tutor in university setting is preferred;
- Responsible, patient, and flexible in working with other students;
- Ability to plan and deliver workshops on generic study skills such as time management, study organization, selective reading, note-taking, and critical thinking skills, presenting ideas in tutorials, revision and exam preparation.
- Available during day time on weekdays in the first semester; number of service hours negotiable;
- Previous experience in supporting students with disabilities is an advantage.

APPLICATION & SELECTION

Please email your resume and contact details to cedars-cope@hku.hk with the subject heading of “Peer Study Skills Coaches” on or before 20 August, 2013. Shortlisted candidates will be invited to attend an interview between mid and late August 2013.

ENQUIRIES

Ms. Iris LAM (Clinical Psychologist, CEDARS)

Tel: 2857-8388 (office hours)

Counselling and Person Enrichment Section

Centre of Development and Resource for Students