 Teach4HK 良師香港

Dear HKU students,

We are a group of passionate young people from the non-profit organization, Teach4HK 良師香港 who are committed and faithful to help deliver better learning opportunities for underprivileged students in Hong Kong and to encourage education among the younger generation. Currently, we are recruiting a group of prospective and talented university students, from any academic discipline, for a one-year full-time teaching leadership program for the academic year 2015-2016.

This scheme is not just about contributing to the community, it is also about preparing yourself for the future and cultivating in your dreams. You may refer to the illustration below for a glimpse of our program.

We cordially invite you to come to our sharing booth at the main library covered area on 17th-21st November (9:00am – 5:00pm) to know more about our program.

We also invite you to come to our sharing session on 21st November (5:00pm – 6:30pm) at LE2, Library Extension Building to gain more inspiration and ideas on the Teach4HK program. We are honored to invite Mr. Adrian Teng, Group Treasurer of Jardine Mathesons Limited (怡和集團), to share with university students how you should plan your career and prepare for the future.

If you are a university student who is passionate in bringing positive influence to our underprivileged youngsters and to experience a fruitful year in teaching with leadership training, please do come to our sharing session!

You may register the event from the link below: <http://goo.gl/forms/1OGyDB3Dxb>.
