

Your dream of global cities: Join the Future City Summit in HKU!

The world is our oyster! And its future is up to our design and innovation! Join Future City Summit in HKU with 80 delegates from over 10 countries in Asia to draw a great picture of future cities! Smart and Resilient!

Future City Summit is supported by the Centre of Development and Resources for Students (CEDARS) and the Development and Alumni Affairs Office (DAAO) of the University. It aspires to be a movement of advocacy to shape future cities and connecting them across Asia through youth and entrepreneurialism with a group of 80 delegates from over 10 cities. Together with guest speakers, the delegates will explore issues of Urban Resilience, Smart City, Big Data & Internet of Things and Urban Lifestyles in the new era. The event will be held from August 4 (Thursday) to August 7 (Sunday) this year. We have invited distinguished speakers including:

Hon Jasper TSANG Yok-sing, GBM, GBS, JP, President of the Legislative Council of Hong Kong

Mr. Alvin Yip, Director, Jockey Club Design Institute for Social Innovation, Hong Kong

Prof. Yesha Y. Siva, Director, Executive Master of Meaningful Innovation, Hong Kong

Dr. Alexander van Hoffman, Graduate School of Design, Harvard University

The Future City Summit is also a HKU-led student initiative with a strong network of various universities in the region, such as University of Delhi, University of Tokyo and De La Salle University shaping a talent cloud for bottom up urban planning and data related projects, with the support of Harvard Graduate of Design, Tsinghua University and Hong Kong Policy Research Institute.
