Getting Ready for Internship in China

Date: 27th October, 2011 (Thursday)

Time: 2:30 – 3:30pm

Venue: Learning Plus (G/F, Main Library)

Are you planning to apply for an internship in China? Thomas Chan, a Year 4 BSocSc (Government and Law) student, will share his ideas on getting ready for internship in China. He will discuss on 1) different natures of companies and 2) how to expand your network in China. Ask and learn from your peer and exchange ideas with others.

Register with your full name, university number and phone number at cedars-learningplus@hku.hk by 26th October, 2011 (Wednesday). Walk-in is welcome.

Peer Sharing is a one-hour casual chit-chat session with peer students on non-academic matters.

Appointment Service

You can make an appointment of a 15-minute session to discuss any concerns with CEDARS Student Advisors. Contact Ms Josephine Lee at cedars-learningplus@hku.hk or on 2219-4857.

These are the most common areas that students would like to discuss at these sessions:
