

SERVICE 100 Fund Projects 2012 – 2013

Summer Round
No.	Project Title	Project Summary	Project Period	Project Location	Number of HKU Students	Number and Type of Service Recipients
1	Advent Australia 2013	It was the annual international service trip organised by the Rotaract Club, HKUSU that aimed to nurture the social responsibility of the participants and provide them with an opportunity to engage in community service in the local homeless shelter, nursing home, orphanage and community garden.	8 – 18 Jan, 2013	Australia	24	50 children without parental care, 100 homeless and poor people and 20 people with disabilities
2	Go2Africa (G2A) Project	This volunteering programme dedicated to the improvement of public health and education in Ghana through projects on latrine construction, mosquito nets donation, hygiene knowledge promotion and voluntary teaching. It also provided a platform of cultural exchange for HKU volunteers.	Service trip of team 1: 16 Jun – 6 Jul, 2013; Service trip of team 2: 8 – 28 Jul, 2013	Ghana, Africa	22	600 villagers and 540 students
3	Health Exhibition 2012	The project provided an opportunity for medical, nursing, pharmacy and traditional Chinese medical students to contribute their time and knowledge to serve the community. The topic of 2012 was cancer. In addition to a drawing competition for primary school students, a two-week health exhibition and a series of health seminar, health checks and health counseling were organised.	3 Nov – 2 Dec, 2012	Hong Kong	13 exco members and 265 helpers for the exhibition	95 primary school students and 2500 general public
4	Hello!Neverland	The project was a one-week voluntary teaching program that helped the less-privileged children in Hainan, Mainland China, to improve their academic performance and broaden their horizon. It also provided a unique opportunity for HKU students to contribute by serving.	23 – 30 Dec, 2012	Hainan, China	6	70 middle school students
5	Hoikum King	Hoikum King was a voluntary teaching project of Beyond the Pivot that helped the underprivileged migrant children improve their English, broaden their horizon and better adapt to Hong Kong education system by offering them English classes.	3 Nov – 8 Dec, 2012	Hong Kong	9	17 primary school students

6	'KEEP UP' - Service Trip to Vietnam	The project brought the idea of "reading and learning" to developing countries through a two-week service trip to Vietnam. The project included teaching English for students from rural areas, building a library in the local village school and cultural exchange with the young volunteers there.	6 – 14 Jan, 2013	Vietnam	32	250 primary school students and 50 university students
7	Less-Meat Monday Let's Meet@HKU	The project promoted sustainability at HKU by encouraging less meat dining at HKU catering units through the Less-Meat Monday campaign.	Oct 2012- Mar 2013	Hong Kong	10	About 5932 primary school students and 1800 HKU students
8	Mansyun Association (Branch of The University of Hong Kong)	The project recruited undergraduates in HKU to be voluntary teachers to provide free tutorial classes to the underprivileged children to help them improve the academic performances.	1 Sep, 2012 – 31 Aug, 2013	Hong Kong	9	6 primary school students
9	Mosaic Artwork Program	The project served children with special-needs in Hong Kong by providing them an opportunity to learn mosaic art and interact with university students. The final piece of mosaic artwork produced was displayed in the HKRC JFK school as a gift for the celebration of the school's anniversary.	5 Oct – 17 Dec, 2012	Hong Kong	38	24 disabled children
10	Prime Care - Health Oriented Pupils Education Scheme (HOPES)	The project promoted the healthcare concept to the needy population in the rural area of Mainland China by organising health promotion talk in village schools and conducting environment assessment on disease prevention in students' families. A donation campaign was also organised before the service trip to collect used toys, stationeries and gifts for the village children.	24 – 28 Dec, 2012	Guangdong, China	28	120 primary school students and 15 teaching staff
11	SinCere	It was a two-week service trip to Sichuan that provided voluntary teaching to 6-15 year old children to increase their learning aspirations.	Exploration trip: 28 Dec, 2012 – 17 Jan, 2013; Service trip: 31 May – 15 Jun, 2013	Si Chuan, China	12	1665 students
12	The Road to Recovery, Supported by the Community	The project promoted the self-efficacy of the ex-mentally ill patients and enhanced the understanding on this group by the public through the organisation of a positive psychology workshop, two creative art	3 Nov – 31 Dec, 2012	Hong Kong	14	21 ex-mentally ill patients and 550 general public workshops and a public education exhibition and carnival.

13	Yonder Narnia	"Yonder Narnia" offered a teaching programme to enhance Yunnan children's learning interest through teaching, reading and extra-curriculum activities. Fundraising activities were also organised to support the construction of libraries and basic facilities in the rural primary schools.	31 May – 14 Jun, 2013	Yunnan, China	13	200 primary school students

First Semester
No.	Project Title	Project Summary	Project Period	Project Location	Number of HKU Students	Number and Type of Service Recipients
1	Better health, Better lives, Better future II	Having improved the quality of life of over 100 children in Cambodia in 2012, the project was awarded the championship of the “Student and Youth volunteering Award 2013” by Social Welfare Department. This year, volunteers will build a water purifying system and a chicken farm for two orphanages, in addition to health check and health education activities.	Pioneer trip: 16 -18 Jun, 2013; Service trip: 19 Jun – 2 Jul, 2013	Cambodia	17	100 orphans and 240 villagers
2	Hello Neverland	The project enabled HKU volunteers to make a real difference on the lives of the underprivileged children in Hainan, widen their horizons and help them build a more positive future by teaching them and conducting social research on local communities.	1 – 15 Jun, 2013	Hainan, China	15	720 middle school students
3	Inspire Miracle	Inspire Miracle empowered the elementary and middle school students in Inner Mongolia, broadened their horizons and improved their learning experience through a variety of teaching activities on oral English, art appreciation, psychology, science experiments and team building exercises, etc.	1 – 17 Jun, 2013	Inner Mongolia, China	16	180 middle school students and 80 elementary school students
4	Mainland Students Serve the Community	This project included a series of service activities organised by CSSA, HKU, that aimed to serve the needy people in local community.	Sep 2012 - Jun 2013	Hong Kong	20	20 solitary elderly and 340 general public
5	Migrant-Mission-Moved	The project focused on the Chinese migrant children by offering care to them and empowering them for upcoming challenges through a mentorship programme and interaction.	1 – 8 Jun, 2013	Yunnan, China	14	141 students, 16 staff and 15 parents
6	Parium Puer- Peers of the Child Paediatric Ward Visit at Hospitals	Parium Puer is a Latin term meaning peers of the child. This pediatric ward service project served the children in hospitalization by enhancing their emotional management and self-understanding skills, offering them teaching lessons and fun time, such as drama performance and birthday party.	Jan - Dec, 2013	Hong Kong	23	177 children patients

7	Shoes-Off Walkathon 2012	Shoes-off Walkathon is the annual fund-raising event of China Education Association, HKUSU. By walking barefoot, the event aims to enable participants to experience the hardness of the underprivileged students in the poor regions of China and raise their concern and care to China rural education problems. The money raised through the event will be used to subsidize the tuition fee for high school students in Guiding County, Guizhou Province.	27 Oct, 2012	Hong Kong	34	34 HKU students and 72 general public
---	--------------------------	---	--------------	-----------	----	---------------------------------------

Second Semester
No.	Project Title	Project Nature	Project Period	Project Location	Number of HKU Students	Number and Type of Service Recipients
1	C.A.R.E.	C.A.R.E. is the first school-based health education programme offered to primary school students in Hong Kong by Prime Care. Through three days of interactive and intriguing workshops, the project aims to bring an effective improvement of attitudes on health among local children.	24 Jun – 4 Jul, 2013	Hong Kong	39	129 primary school students
2	Caring Service Trip (肇慶市鼎湖鄉村小學愛心交流活動三天團)	The project provided a platform for participants to apply their academic knowledge in real settings through the design and execution of activities for the local villagers. Participants taught hygiene and sanitary knowledge to the primary school students in rural China.	20 – 22 Jun, 2013	Guangdong, China	46	1481 primary school students, 35 Children with the disease of cerebral palsy and 8 underprivileged students
3	Cote d'Ivoire HKU Initiative - Work Camp Manaboué '13	The work camp is organised by the Association for the development of Ivory Coast (ADESCI) and East Asian Educational Association (EAEA). 7 HKU students will go to Manaboué, Ivory Coast in August to organise medical activities, offer teaching support and construct a farm with the aims to facilitate sustainable improvement on health, education and infrastructure in Manaboué.	8 – 31 Aug, 2013	Ivory Coast	2	2500 villagers and 100 young people
4	Health Oriented Pupils Education Scheme 2013 (HOPES)	The project aims at promoting healthcare concept to the primary school students in the remote village of Guangdong. A one-week service trip will be organised to offer health promotion and teaching activities on dental health, personal hygiene, some common diseases and treatment. HKU volunteers will also carry out health check for the local kids.	Exploration trips : 28 -30 March, 2013 & 6 – 9 Nov, 2013; Service trip: 3 – 7 Jun, 2014	Guangdong, China	32	222 primary school students, 11 families and 15 teachers
5	Ignite the L.O.V.E.	“L.O.V.E.” is an acronym of “Learning to care, Obligating, Volunteering and Empowering”. “Ignite the L.O.V.E.” is an elderly home visiting programme to spread love and care across the community. HKU students will work to enhance	Mar - Aug, 2013	Hong Kong	61	21 elderly

		the knowledge of the elderly on home safety, food safety and common diseases, etc.
6	International Service Trip	The project team visited a local orphanage and organised activities to the orphans. In addition, they conducted research on the prevailing attitudes towards women and the cultural and religious reasons underlying gender inequality in Malaysia through seminars held by advocates working in the field of promoting gender equality.	21 – 26 Jun, 2013	Malaysia	33	10 abused or neglected boys, 20 refugee children and 10 abused women
7	Science Without Borders	The aim of this project is to promote science to the underprivileged students in remote area in China, so as to inspire their interest and enthusiasm towards science, and to promote the idea that scientific principles are very useful and applicable in daily lives.	Exploration trip: 5 – 7 Jun, 2013; Service trip: 25 – 28 Dec, 2013	Guangdong, China	16	211 primary school students
8	Seed (revised proposal received on 21 Feb)	Seed is a voluntary teaching programme that provides various kinds of teaching, team-building and mental care activities to the left-behind children in Xinzhou, Wuhan through a two-week summer camp conducted by HKU volunteers.	Exploration trip: 4 – 9 Jan, 2013; Service trip: 14 – 28 Jul, 2013	Hubei, China	10	165 primary school students
9	Siala Shallow Well Water and Sanitation Project	The project engages HKU students in community service in Western Kenya through a 14 day service trip. Students will help a rural community to access clean water for domestic use by constructing water well. They will also build sanitary toilets, promote awareness on hygiene and visit local schools to interact with local students.	29 Jun – 10 Jul, 2013	Kenya	16	500 villagers, 310 secondary school students and 781 primary school students
10	Vision of Inspiration and Child Empowerment (VOICE) - ChenZhou Health Promotion and Education Programme	Following the success last year, the project team of VOICE expanded its service to two schools in Chenzhou. During their 13-day service trip, 20 HKU students conducted voluntary teaching to the local students, organised health checks and health exhibitions for the villagers, and offered first-aid courses to school teachers.	28 May - 6 Jun, 2013	Hunan, China	35	25 families, 800 primary school students and 390 villagers
11	Vocational Skills Transfer Program	“Impact for Peace” gathers enthusiastic volunteers from all walks of life around the world to work for the empowerment of women and children in developing countries, and to promote world peace. This trip included home	5 Jun – 13 Jul, 2013	India	10	30 women in slums, 20 children, 40 people in slum, 50 elderly and 30 disabled children visits, teaching activities for children, vocational skills training for unemployed women and building a sanitation system in the slum area.

12	Ying De Winter Service Trip	With the hope of bringing support and care to the local students and villagers, 40 HKU students joining the trip will organise teaching activities for the children and pay home visits in Ying De.	2 – 4 Jan, 2014	Guangdong, China	33	96 primary school students and 9 villagers