

Recruitment of Student Induction Instructors for CEDARS Induction Programme 2019

Dear Students,

You are invited to support your new fellow students by becoming a Student Induction Instructor (SII) of the 2019 CEDARS Induction Programme. Details are as follows:

Attributes

We are looking for students who are:

- in good command of spoken English;
- responsible, friendly and helpful;
- outgoing and have experience in leading small group discussion; and
- knowledgeable about HKU.

Role

- To serve as a peer mentor of new undergraduate students from September to December 2019; and
- To lead or co-lead a group of 10 new undergraduate students in CEDARS' non-academic induction programme on Aug 31 and Sep 1.

Tasks

- To facilitate ice-breaking and goal setting activities in the Peer Connect Session on Aug 31 morning;
- To moderate a dialogue session between teachers/alumni/students and a group of 10 new undergraduate students in the 'Inspirational Activities' on Aug 31 afternoon; and
- To help new undergraduate students to adjust to the learning and living environment of HKU, including attending a High Table with them on Sep 1.

Commitments

Aug 24 (10:00 am to 2:30 pm; including a high table etiquette practicum) or Aug 27 (2:30 pm to 5:00 pm; without a high table etiquette practicum)	SII training session
Aug 31 (9:00 am to 12:30 pm)	Peer Connect session
Aug 31 (12:30 pm to 5:30 pm)	Inspirational Activities
Sep 1 (1:00 pm to 5:30 pm)	Group task
Sep 1 (6:00 pm to 9:00 pm)	High Table
Sep to Nov	Initiate regular social contacts in the first semester (e.g. social gathering, chat group, join CEDARS activities together, guide students to design and implement daily social inclusion activities etc.)

Reward

In honour of your contribution, each SII will be rewarded with:

- (a) CEDARS reward points (<http://cedars.hku.hk/crss/>) and
- (b) HK$200 honorarium
