

Volunteers Recruitment of School-Company-Parent Program 2015-16

- Organization: Young Entrepreneurs Development Council
- Program: School-Company-Parent Program 「商校家長計劃」
- Introduction: School-Company-Parent Program started at 2003. It is a program aligning the joint efforts of the business sectors and secondary schools. It aims to develop entrepreneurial mindset, proactive and positive thinking for young people before they enter the workforce of the society. Students will be equipped with entrepreneurial mindset that are enterprising, passionate, industrious, initiative, visionary, innovative, resourceful and committed. For each team, we partner one company and one secondary school to elaborate “Entrepreneurial mindset” to students in different workshops.
- Target: Students from all tertiary education institute are welcome
- Duties: Volunteers will join the assigned team to assist Company Ambassadors, and teachers to run the workshops and to involve students’ participation. During the workshop, students need to examine and evaluate the progress and outcome of the workshops, then report to the organization. Besides, volunteers need to assist in large-scale events such as Opening and Closing Ceremony.
- Benefits: We will provide interpersonal skills training to volunteers. Besides from helping in the workshops, volunteers will be able to deepen their understanding on “Entrepreneurship” and have more insights on their career plan. Volunteers will acquire the experience in organizing large-scale events. They are also encouraged to develop social networks and to exchange working experiences with company ambassadors in events
- Work Periods: From February 2016 to May 2016 (mainly on Saturday morning or Weekday afternoon)
