Dear Students,

You are cordially invited to be a local foodmate (飯腳) of Eat To-Gather, which you can:

- Make new friends from different backgrounds and cultures;
- Extend your cultural experience and intercultural competency; and
- Meet and talk to our HKU alumnus.

Eating together as a family is highly valued in the Chinese culture. Eat To-Gather aims to facilitate non-local students' adaptation to life in Hong Kong and promote cultural exchange and integration. Each local foodmate will be paired up with 1 to 2 non-local pal(s) and 1 host family.

Throughout the programme, you are expected to:

- Be a "bridge" to help connect the host and non-local pal(s) and facilitate their communication and exchange;
- Be a peer of your non-local pal(s) in the exploration of life in Hong Kong and HKU;
- Enjoy a homey meal with your non-local pals at the host's home;
- Take part in a variety of family gatherings/activities arranged by the host, yourself or CEDARS; and
- Have loads of fun!

Apply on or before 20 January 2019 (Sun)! For details, please visit cedars.hku.hk/eat-to-gather. Please also like our Facebook page (Eat To-Gather) to stay tuned with our updates.

For enquiries, please email to: eat-to-gather@cedars.hku.hk. We look forward to your participation and support!

Best regards,

Ada Leung
