Apple is pronounced as ‘Ping Gwo’ in Cantonese. It reasonates with a HKU jargon “勁過”, a saying that is used to wish the students to pass their exams with flying colors, hence, known as “SuperPass”.

Complimentary SuperPass Apples are given away at selected catering outlets during the examination period. The small collection of apple recipes in this Menu shows you some ways to cook them. Feel free to create your own unique recipe!
The concept behind HKU’s four-year undergraduate curriculum is the totality of the student learning experience. As you enter university, you are likely to be bewildered by new demands and challenges that you seldom faced during secondary school education. You need to decide for yourselves where you want to go and what you want to achieve when you graduate. It is important that you have appropriate and realistic expectations of a university education and know how far you can go towards achieving your personal and academic goals, so that you will have a sense of achievement at the end of your first year as well as when you graduate.

This Menu aims to be a quick one-stop information hub to help you understand more about learning at HKU, adapt to university life and make better use of HKU’s support services, meet your learning buddies and develop academic and personal goals.

2015 Induction Activities

At the start of every academic year, Faculties, Departments and other University Offices (e.g. the Centre of Development and Resources for Students (CEDARS), University Health Service (UHS), HKU Libraries etc.) organise induction activities for new HKU students. The Induction Programme series of CEDARS, the Inauguration Ceremony, and the High Table Dinner are just some of the exciting examples on offer. All these activities are designed to help you integrate with the rest of the University and to cultivate your sense of identity as a member of HKU.

For more information on the curriculum structure, regulations and selection of major(s) and minor(s), please refer to the website of Academic Advising Office: aao.hku.hk.

Towards the end or after your first year at the University, you may consider going abroad for exchange studies and/or engage in experiential learning required by your course(s). You are therefore encouraged to visit the website of the Office of International Student Exchange (OISE) (www.hku.hk/oise) to learn more about its support services to HKU’s incoming and outgoing exchange students, the exchange opportunities, partner institutions, eligibility and application procedures etc. so that you can plan ahead for your studies. You can also find useful information on non-academic support such as visa and financial assistance on the website of CEDARS-Campus Life (cedars.hku.hk/cl).

You are welcome to visit the Gallant Ho Experiential Learning Centre's website (ghelc.hku.hk) to find out more about the learning projects at your Faculty and other cross-disciplinary learning opportunities.

Academic Advising

At HKU, academic advising helps you understand the aims of university education, the culture and ethos of learning, the available educational options and the paths that can be taken so that you can draw your own roadmaps to achieve your goals and monitor your own progress. Academic advising enables you to have greater satisfaction with your academic experience, better self-understanding and a sense of success in the achievement of personal and academic goals.

All first-year undergraduates will be assigned to a Faculty Academic Adviser upon registration. You are required to meet with your Faculty Academic Adviser once every semester in your first year of study to discuss different academic issues.

You can find out more from the Academic Advising Office's website: aao.hku.hk.
Language Requirement and Pre-requisites

You are advised to pay attention in completing the language and pre-requisite course(s) required by your Faculty in your first year of study.

Some Faculties require students to complete certain introductory course(s) in their first year to facilitate smooth progression to senior years and better understanding of the subject in question. At the programme level, majors and minors may also require students to complete certain pre-requisite(s) in the first year, the failing of which may affect their taking of senior courses and declaration of the relevant major or minor. Please check with your Faculty for the details of the courses.

Common Core Curriculum

Students are normally required to take six 6-credit courses, one from each Area of Inquiry (AoI) and not more than two from any AoI. However, the number of courses required and the year and semester in which they are taken vary from programme to programme. Please refer to the Common Core Curriculum's website (commoncore.hku.hk) to find out the requirements for your programme.

The Common Core Curriculum has proved to be effective in creating cross-faculty and cross-disciplinary learning communities. Tutorials engage students from different disciplines in stimulating and in-depth discussions and have received high ratings from students.

Common Core Curriculum's website: tl.hku.hk/common-core-curriculum
Internships and Other Learning Opportunities

HKU promotes a total learning experience approach which combines inside and outside classroom learning. Various units in HKU such as General Education Unit (GEU), Institute of Human Performance (IHP), etc. provide non-credit bearing, outside classroom learning opportunities for students. They enable students to achieve the HKU educational aims of fostering students’ abilities in intercultural understanding, enhancing their awareness and commitment to global citizenship, and preparing them to be leaders and advocates for improvement of the human condition.

Information for Newly Arrived Non-local Students

Weeks of Welcome (WoW)

A series of induction programmes for newly arrived non-local students will be held from Aug 21 to Sept 30. The activities, a mixture of fun, fact finding, visits and tours, aim to help the newly arrived students to settle down, induct into the local way and get to know about the new environment and people.

Programme highlights:
• WoW Acquaintances
• Orientation for Non-local Students
• WoW Party

For more information, please visit cedars.hku.hk/wow.

Visa Formalities

Upon entry into Hong Kong, you should have already activated your student visa and got a permission to stay. You have to extend your student visa if you have extended your study or your limit of stay is shorter than the normal duration of your study programme. If you have any outstanding visa formalities, please consult CEDARS-Campus Life as soon as possible. Non-local students are expected to have a valid student visa before commencement of studies. You also need to inform Hong Kong Immigration Department of any subsequent changes in your study status or programmes. For undergraduates and taught course postgraduates from the Mainland, the contact office is the China Affairs Office (Email: visaapp@hku.hk)
In case you have not secured an accommodation, CEDARS’ accommodation service may help. CEDARS provides information on both university and privately rented rooms/flats nearby and advises on tenancy agreement and rights. For details, please visit CEDARS-Campus Life’s website at cedars.hku.hk/cl.

You can also search for privately rented rooms, flats and even roommates via iMAP (see p.25).

Adjustment Tips for Non-local Students

Check out what other non-local students say about life at HKU and their tips on settling in at this website: cedars.hku.hk/tips4nonlocal.
Buddy Programme

A Buddy Mentor will be assigned to all incoming International Undergraduates & Exchange Students. Your Buddy Mentor will be happy to provide linguistic support, cultural guidance and information about life at HKU to you.

Website: www.als.hku.hk/admission/exchange/buddy-program

Chinese Language and Cultural Courses

The Chinese Language Centre offers a wide range of highly popular courses, including Cantonese courses for Mainland and foreign students, as well as Chinese language and cultural courses for international students.

Support for Students with Disabilities or Special Educational Needs (SEN)

CEDARS is committed to supporting students with disabilities or special educational needs (SEN) in overcoming barriers and achieving successful university education. We are the one-stop service unit for students with physical and sensory disabilities, learning and developmental disabilities, mental illnesses, chronic medical illnesses, or multiple disabilities. We provide comprehensive service which includes support on academic studies, support for application of university housing, access to information on campus facilities and career resources, provision of funding to procure learning aids/equipment, and counselling service.

If you have a disability and/or wish to receive additional support due to your special needs, please contact and register with CEDARS - SEN Support at (852) 2857 8388 or cedars-SEN@hku.hk.

Website: cedars.hku.hk/SENSupport
Equality, Diversity and Sustainability

Equal Opportunities

The University is committed to creating, promoting and maintaining an environment for staff and students which provides equality of opportunity, which is free of any discrimination and harassment.

Website: www.eounit.hku.hk

Handling Discrimination/Harassment Complaints

The University’s equal opportunity policy forbids discrimination/harassment in activities carried out in the course of employment, education, provision of goods and services, or other activities organised by the offices of the University. Procedures for handling complaints of discrimination and harassment can be found on the webpage of the Equal Opportunity Unit: www.eounit.hku.hk.

Parenting Needs

Facilities such as washroom with baby-changing tables at all amenities centres, and room for baby-feeding at Chong Yuet Ming Amenities Centre, are provided for parent students during their time on campus.
Procedures for the Resolutions of Grievances of Students

The University has a set of proper procedures for students who wish to make a complaint on an administrative or academic matter. To learn more, please visit www.asa.hku.hk/handbook/ug and refer to Appendix K of the Undergraduate Handbook Section for information.

Religious Needs

The Halal Food Corner is not merely a place for consumption of Muslim food, it is also a platform for promotion of food culture and interaction among University members. A multi-faith prayer room is also available on 1/F of the Fong Shu Chuen Amenities Centre for use by students and staff members. It offers an option for those who are in need of special praying venue during the day.

Sustainability

The HKU Sustainability Office works with the Estates Office, President and Vice Chancellor’s Office and colleagues throughout the University on initiatives to improve sustainability at the University of Hong Kong.

The Office hopes to bring greater attention to the many people at HKU who are working to increase understanding and awareness of the economic, environmental, and social aspects of sustainability, managing our impacts, and reaching out to the community on campus and beyond.

Check for more information on Green Connections (a three-part, multi-media experience), Sustainability Internships (open to undergraduate and graduate students from any HKU Department or Faculty), and other information at www.sustainability.hku.hk and www.facebook.com/HKUSustainability.
Student Groups and Networks

The Hong Kong University Students' Union (HKUSU)

There are currently 130 student organisations affiliated to HKUSU. These student societies are categorised into six main groups: Campus Media, Faculty and Academic Societies, Hall Students’ Associations, Sports Clubs (forming the Sports Association), Cultural Clubs (forming the Cultural Association) and Independent Clubs (forming the Independent Clubs Association).

Website: http://www.hkusu.org

Other Student Societies

Apart from student groups under HKUSU, there are other student groups discussing global citizenship, fair trade etc. If you are a full-time undergraduate student from Mainland China, you may be interested in visiting the websites of the Chinese Students and Scholars Association (CSSA-HKU) at www.hkucssa.com and its Undergraduate Department (CSSAUD) at www.cssaud.com.

iMAP

iMAP is an online social networking platform. Membership is exclusive for the HKU community. Members can search for private accommodation nearby, look for roommates and other fellow students by interest, talent, nationality, current location and overseas experience etc. They can also stay in touch with the HKU community and share their travel experience while abroad. To register, please visit cedars.hku.hk/imap.

HKU Service Network

The HKU Service Network is a dynamic online platform designed to help you contribute to global issues through joining and developing sustainable and innovative service projects. The platform enables students and NGOs to interact directly by way of exchanging service ideas and resources.

“Peer English Tutoring” and “Survival Cantonese”

“Peer English Tutoring” is a 30-minute face-to-face chat session with a native or near-native English speaking Peer Tutor, jointly organised by the Centre for Applied English Studies (CAES) and CEDARS. “Survival Cantonese” provides practice sessions conducted by Peer Tutors to cover some basic day-to-day survival Cantonese for non-Cantonese speakers. It is ideal for newly arrived non-Cantonese speakers. This programme is jointly organised by the Chinese Language Centre and CEDARS.

* Please watch out for our email recruitment notices for details.
Financial Management and Financial Assistance

Full-time local undergraduates may seek financial assistance by applying for the “Tertiary Student Finance Scheme - Publicly-funded Programmes (TSFS)”, the means-tested government grant and loan scheme. In addition, a “Non-means-tested Loan Scheme for Full-time Tertiary Students (NLSFT)” is available for applicants who have difficulties in applying for the means-tested TSFS.

Supplementing the Government schemes, there are a number of bursaries and interest-free loans managed by HKU to assist students with financial hardship. These awards are allocated to full-time local students on the basis of their financial needs.

The First-in-the-Family Education Fund (FIFE Fund) supports full-degree first year local undergraduate students who are the first generation of university students from low income families.

HKU Fresh$3000 is a subsidy (HK$3,000) provided to eligible local full-time undergraduates newly admitted to HKU to cover some of their immediate expenses. Applicants must be in receipt of the HKSAR comprehensive social security assistance prior to their entry into the University. Deadline of application: Sept 18, 2015.

You will be introduced to all these financial options at CEDARS’ orientation talk “Financing your University Studies” (see P.3). For more details, please refer to the information sheet in your registration package or you can visit this website: cedars.hku.hk/cl.

FAQ Videos on Successful University Life

CEDARS has produced a number of informative videos (cedars.hku.hk/faq) addressing the questions that are most frequently asked by first-year students. Students from other years may also find these videos useful for their university life. These videos provide insights on how to better prepare for the challenges ahead and how to develop a positive attitude for a fruitful and healthy university life.
There are thirteen residential halls and three non-residential halls. There are also four Residential Colleges in Jockey Club Student Village III, Kennedy Town, offering new residential experience to 1,800 students.

The Residential Colleges have three distinctive features. First, students have a close engagement with the community. They can use their knowledge and skills to help building a better community. Second, there is a strong intellectual and academic component. Through activities such as seminars, talks and projects, undergraduate and postgraduate students together embark on interesting intellectual journeys and explorations. Third, the Residential Colleges have strong representations of local, mainland and overseas students. Students may also help Kennedy Town develop into a multi-cultural community.

Other accommodation options include non-hall housing and off-campus housing. Please refer to CEDARS-Campus Life (http://cedars.hku.hk/showext.php?id=cl_ac) for applications and other information.
Amenities Centres

CEDARS manages three amenities centres (cedars.hku.hk/cl/amenities). The facilities are open for use by students and staff as individuals or groups. Some facilities can be booked online via HKU Portal for exclusive use. Priority is given to students, student societies, and student organised activities.

Tips on Enjoying University Life

1. Make use of your freedom and autonomy wisely: explore and experiment with caution and self discipline.

2. Improve yourself: set realistic goals at the beginning of each semester and monitor your progress regularly.

3. Manage your time efficiently: use a daily planner to prioritise and schedule your tasks.

4. Learn actively: participate in class and dialogue with professors, discuss with peers, read and reflect.

5. Broaden your perspective: learn about local and world issues by reading newspapers and participating in discussions and campaigns.

6. Maintain good health: exercise and relax daily, eat properly and get enough sleep.

7. Expand your social support network: make friends from all backgrounds, join student societies, participate in social activities and keep in touch with friends and family.

8. Check how well adjusted you are to university life regularly and learn coping strategies at Psychometer (psyax.cedars.hku.hk).

9. Visit cedars.hku.hk/fye for upcoming activities specially designed for first-year students.

10. Bookmark cedars.hku.hk for student resources (Campus Life), adjustment advice (CoPE), career planning (Careers & Placement) and service learning (Student Development).
